

Sanjida Nisha- Purewow Internship

These are pictures of the recipe app I made with my team during my internship at Purewow. I worked on creating wireframes for every page and flow maps while designing the app. We then built individual pages using react native. I worked on parts of the home page, the recipe card and settings page.

